W. C. T. U. BACKS FISHER AS FOES THREATEN PROBE

Local Organization Puts Trust in the Mayor As Counter Thrust.

Resolutions of confidence in Mayor W. H. Fisher, whose eligibility to hold office was questioned this week in a petition forwarded to the attorney general by the Visible Voters league, alleging pre-election promises, were drafted today by the local W. C. T. U. These too will go to the attorney general, it was said.

They follow:
"Whereas, information has come to the Ada Union of the W. C. T. U. that certain persons are asking that an investigation be made of certain acts of the Hon. W. H. Fisher, mayor of said city.

"And, Whereas, we believe that said agitation is the result of the activities of certain politicians, who are unfriendly to the mayor, and we further believe that such agitation is for purely political purposes for the purpose of attempting to discredit the mayor.

"Therefore, Be it resolved, by the W. C. T. U. of the City of Ada:

"1. That we believe that the laws and ordinances of said city are being better enforced than they have been for a number of years.

"2. That we have implicit faith in the honor, integrity and good intentions of the mayor of said city.

"3. That we have no fear of the results of any investigation that might be made into the conduct of the mayor but that we believe and demand that if an investigation be made that said investigation be made to include the conduct of all officials of the county and district, who are charged with the duty of enforcing our laws, and we further believe that in all investigations that may be had in this county and district, that an impartial judge should preside over same in order that the said investigation may be fair and full and not influenced in anyway by any local set or faction of people.

"4. That we call upon all persons who have taken part in this agitation against the mayor to thoroughly investigate the source from which it comes.

"5. Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to the local press; that a copy be sent to the mayor and to the attorney general's office.

"Respectfully submitted,
MRS. T. E. BRENTS,
MRS. J. H. BOUD,
MRS. C. M. BARTON.

DAUGHERTY IS ASKED TO RULE ON BOOZE LAWS

Salvador Mourning Death of Hundreds In Spring Freshet

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, June 15.—The legislative assembly has decreed a period of national mourning for victims of the recent flood, caused by the sudden rise of the Acelhute and Arenal rivers, during torrential rains. While the first estimate of 300 dead has not been borne out, total fatalities, it is believed, will exceed 100.

The storm is still raging, the city is without electric power for lighting purposes and the water supply has been cut off. Members of the San Salvador society and the foreign colonies are contributing to the relief of the sufferers.

The flood was the worst in the history of the republic. Many houses were destroyed and property loss in general will be immense.

LAW OF IRELAND TO BE COMPLETE FRIDAY, BELIEF

Churchill Reports That
New Constitution Is a Friend to Treaty.

FAST PROGRESS MADE

Irish Elections Today To Lend Harmony to Home Rule Relations.

LONDON, June 15.—The constitution for the Irish Free State, in the shaping of which unexpected good progress has been made will be made public tomorrow it was announced today by Winston Churchill the colonial secretary, in the house of commons. The constitution conforms with the Anglo-Irish treaty, Mr. Churchill said.

Free State Created.
The Anglo-Irish treaty, signed last December, under which the Irish Free State is being created, provided for the formation of an Irish Parliament. The act to give the Treaty effect, passed by the British Parliament in March, stipulated that elections to a provisional Parliament to the Free State should be held "as soon as may be" after the passage of the act. These are the elections being held in Ireland today.

The Parliament so elected is to pass upon the constitution for the Free State under which a permanent parliament for Southern Ireland will be chosen.

Lacking any constitutional division of the country into districts for the election, the act of the British Parliament stipulated that the prospective members be nominated from the constituencies which elected members to the Parliament chosen under the Government of Ireland Act of 1920. Elections were held in Southern Ireland that year under this act, but the Parliament never came into being. Instead the members elected were declared by the Irish Republic Government at that time to constitute the membership of the Dail Eireann, or Republican Parliament, which since the adoption of the Anglo-Irish treaty, has been allowed by the British government to function as virtually the recognized legislative body for Southern Ireland. It was the Dail Eireann, for instance, which passed upon the Anglo-Irish treaty itself, ratifying it, as will be recalled, by a majority of seven votes.

DeValera Opposes It.
It was contemplated by the British government, and originally by the Irish Provisional government headed by Michael Collins, that today's elections should be freely contested and should constitute a plebiscite of Southern Ireland on the question of the treaty and the proposed constitution. The opposition to such a plebiscite on the part of the Republican faction, led by Eamon de Valera, was so determined, however, that late in May an agreement was reached between the Collins and deValera factions that candidates previously agreed upon should be nominated by the two factions, comprising virtually an official slate, the members being chosen in the proportion in which the two factions are now represented in the Dail Eireann, or with a slight preponderance for the Collins party.

The new parliament will form a

BREAK DIRT FOR CHURCH JUNE 20

Public Worship Outdoors
To Mark Beginning of Presbyterian Home.

One of the most important events in the history of the First Presbyterian church of this city is scheduled to take place Tuesday morning, June 20, when first dirt on the proposed Presbyterian church building will be broken. An elaborate ceremony in honor of this event is being planned.

First work will include the excavation of the ground for the building, which will be located at the site where the old building formerly stood. Present plans call for one of the most beautiful and modern churches of the city and it is estimated that approximately $50,000 will be needed to complete the work. Donation work by members will be used the first day. For all men who come to work that day, or part of the day, a dinner will be furnished by ladies of the church. The committee in charge stated this morning that all members with teams who were willing to donate their use should get in touch with the committee at once.

Other Ministers to Attend.
A short religious service will be held before work is started. Ministers from other churches have been invited to attend and Dr. A. Linscheid of the Teachers College will deliver the principal address. First dirt will be thrown by Mrs. McMillan, at whose home the first church was organized, assisted by Mrs. Higgins, another pioneer member of the church.

A meeting of the committee was held last night and tentative plans were prepared to be submitted to the congregation at Sunday's meeting. A plan for the building will also be submitted for acceptance. As soon as all these matters are approved by the membership, a contract for the construction of the building probably will be let and the work continued as rapidly as possible. All members have been requested to be present Sunday.

To Stop Praters.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—Definite steps through legislation to stop sale of liquor upon American ships started today through presentation by Representative Bankhead, democrat, Alabama, of an amendment to the merchant marine bill which would cut off from government aid any ship carrying intoxicating liquors or beverages.

200 GUARDSMEN CARRY OUT LAW IN STRIKE AREA

SALT LAKE CITY, June 15.—Two hundred national guardsmen were on duty today to enforce in the coal strike area of Utah Governor Mayberry's proclamation of martial law, which was issued yesterday after a mine guard had been killed and a mine official wounded by men who fired on the train near Castle Gate.

Three national guard units were sent to the scene last night. They include a battery of artillery and two cavalry troops. Major Elmer Johnson, in command, was given authority by the governor to close all mines in the district if that seemed necessary to restore order. The train reported ambushed yesterday bore non-union miners.

Reed's skull was reported to have been fractured and he was still unconscious at his home on West Thirteenth street Thursday morning.

Reed had just scaled the pole to get in touch with wire with the city water supply station when the fall occurred. He was removed immediately to his home for medical care.

POLITICAL RUIN FEARED FOR U. S.

Nation Drifting To Petty
Things, Secretary Says
at Commencement.

(By the Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, June 15.—A slight pessimistic view on some, predominating tendencies of American political thought was voiced today by Secretary of War Weeks at the Western Reserve University commencement.

The war secretary declared the drift of the people in recent years was gradually weakening the national government's structure by undermining the constitution and sweeping away principles of party responsibility.

The direct primary, "bloc" adjustment, and the country's readiness to accept constitutional amendments, the speaker pointed out as evidence that the government was heading away from its ancient safeguarding and towards complete social democracy.

As one result, he asserted, in the public mind, "the legislative backing of our national government probably never has been at a lower ebb than it is today."

"The direct primary," he continued, "has so far lessened the quality of men willing to serve in the public's interest that prompt action should be taken to modify it and get back to the old plan."

Politicians Selfish.
Of the "bloc" movement in politics, Mr. Weeks declared that when a party comes into power, policies existing today make it almost impossible to fulfill party promises because representatives are so wont to draw away when their own personal interests are directly involved, "and then there is an end to resolve in government."

In its attempt to improve upon the work of the fathers by amending the constitution, the secretary said, "the country has failed signally."

He added that in the matter of popular elections, "we have run riot" and he suggested that much of the present unrest and uncertainty seem centered in taxation and prohibition.

30 NATIONS HAVE ENVOYS AT HAGUE AS PARLEY OPENS

Sixty Delegates To Work
On Russian Problems;
Genoa Recalled.

U. S. ABSENT AGAIN

Harding Government Not in Favor of Mixing Up
In Politics.

(By the Associated Press)
THE HAGUE, June 15.—The conference which is to discuss Russian affairs was called to order in the peace palace this afternoon by the Dutch foreign minister, Havan Karnebeck. Sixty delegates, representing about 30 countries, were present.

The new European economic conference which opened today in the Peace Palace at The Hague was called to consider questions relating to Russia in her economic relations with her neighbors. It is virtually an adjournment of the Genoa conference, which came to an end the latter part of May without having reached any solution of Russian problems. The decision to postpone action concerning Russia was induced largely by the desire of the European powers to persuade the United States to participate. But the American government is not to be represented at The Hague any more than it was at the conference in Italy.

Politics at Genoa.
While the Genoa conference was nominally economic, it soon developed animated political discussions. The Hague gathering, composed exclusively of experts, is designed to be confined solely to the consideration of economic questions.

When the American government declined on May 15 the invitation to be represented at The Hague, this decision was received with expressions of regret in Europe, particularly from Great Britain and France, for it was felt abroad that nothing could be undertaken for the restoration of Russia without the co-operation of the United States, whose wealth, resources and political power made her indispensable to any great world restoration movement.

The Washington government in refusing to go to The Hague criticized the attitude of Russia as a bar to any settlement and characterized the Soviet reply to the allied terms as lacking any definiteness as a basis for a parley. Nevertheless, Washington said, the American government always was ready to join other governments in arranging for an inquiry by experts into the economic situation in Russia and the necessary remedies.

America Can't Enter.
"This government," the American communication said, "is unable to conclude that it can helpfully participate in the meeting at The Hague, as this would appear to be the continuance under a different nomenclature of the Genoa conference and destined to encounter dissimilar difficulties if the attitude disclosed in the Russian memorandum of May 11 remains unchanged. Floater Is Charged With Stabbing Driller To Death Wednesday.

(By the Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Tex., June 15.—One hundred armed men from Oil City, ten miles south of Graham, in the Bunker oil field, last night stormed the Young county jail at Graham in an attempt to secure "Happy" Copley, held on a charge of killing A. A. Robertson, 35, oil well driller, there early yesterday.

The mob was met at the door by John Saye, sheriff of Young county, his deputies and police officials. Sheriff Saye, in a short speech, told the mob that the first man who attempted to enter the jail would be killed and that his prisoner would be protected at all hazards. Following his talk there were several conversations among members of the mob. They remained in the vicinity for some time and dispersed about 1 o'clock this morning, leaving with the threat that they would come again for Conlee tonight.

"Pll Protect Him"
Sheriff Saye announced this morning that Conlee is still being held in the county jail, and that he would not be moved to any other place.

"I do not expect the mob tonight, but if it comes Conlee will be protected by my department," he said. Conlee is alleged to have inflicted a fatal knife wound on Robertson shortly after a fire which did $100,000 worth of damage in Oil City early yesterday. Officers have not been able to determine the cause of the trouble.

Robertson is said to have been very popular with the residents of the oil town. Conlee is said to have been a "floater" who had been there but a short time.

HARDING DOUBTFUL ON COLLEGE INVITATIONS

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 15.—President Harding, who has had under consideration for several days invitations to go to New England next week to attend the Yale and Harvard commencement exercises, informed Senator Lodge of Massachusetts today that he believed it would be impossible for him to make the trip. The Senator called on behalf of the two universities to urge the acceptance of the invitations.

Crude Oil Produced in U. S. Shows Gain For Week Just Past

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 15.—The daily average gross crude oil production of the United States increased 8,150 barrels, totalling 1,495, 100 barrels, for the week ending June 10, as compared with 1,450, 950 barrels for the preceding week, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute.

Oklahoma and Kansas production shows a daily average gross production of 474,600 barrels, increase of 3,100 barrels.

In Oklahoma the Osage nation is shown as 103,000 barrels against 101,500 barrels, an output of the Lyons-Quinn pool was 33,100 barrels, against 30,000 barrels.

McCUMBER PLANS TO PUSH SOLDIER BONUS OVER ALL

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 15.—Plans for a conference of republican senators to decide upon the procedure with the soldier's bonus and tariff bills were made today by leaders after a conference with President Harding had disclosed that he desired the tariff bill held before the senate.

When the announcement was made, Chairman McCumber of the finance committee, in charge of the tariff and bonus bills, announced that he intended to make a motion early next week to lay aside the tariff bill, and proceed with the bonus measure, in spite of the president's wishes and also regardless of the decision the republican party conference reaches Saturday.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

THE ONE GREAT FRIEND:—A man that hath friends must show himself friendly; and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.—Proverbs 18:24.

YOUR GREATEST POWER

Sergeant Alvin York, "greatest hero of the world war," again is in a run of good luck.

A few months ago it looked as if he would lose his farm through inability to meet payments on its $13,000 mortgage.

A month in vaudeville would have brought York enough money to handle the mortgage.

But he said, "I would rather lose my farm, and go back to work upon it as a common day laborer than to commercialize the fame which was only incidental to an act of patriotism."

Many have marveled at Sergeant York's modesty. The explanation is, he has faith in Divine Guidance, which carried the early pioneers through many a hard time.

York's crop last year was a bad one—low in bushels, low in dollars. Like millions of others, he was a victim of deflation of prices.

This did not discourage York. He kept repeating: "Religious faith sustained me in my danger and removed my fear. And He will see me through."

At times it seemed that there was no hope, no way out. But never did York's faith waver. Now the mortgage is gone, paid off by the Nashville Rotarians. Some will call it a windfall. Cynics will call it chance.

Faith is the mightiest power we possess. It takes various forms, ranging from confidence in self or luck to belief in Divine Guidance.

No human career can be carried through to success without faith, the mover of mountains. This is a universal belief, shared by all religions among people in all stages of barbarism or civilization, and it is the force behind all prayer.

It is an unhappy individual who has no faith in creed, Creator, human nature and fellow man. Without faith, the world would be a rotten one in which to live, and life would be a drab and futile. Cultivate faith, hasten arrival at your goal.—McAlester News-Capital.

TROUBLES OF CONGRESSMEN.

No doubt members of both houses of congress are eager to get back home to look after their fences, but they are in something of a hole. The tariff bill is one of the hobbies of the majority party and it has not even made a fair start in the senate. Even if it should pass any time soon considerable time will be required for the conference committees to iron out the differences in the in the house and senate schedules. Then the president insists that the ship subsidy bill simply must be passed. Then there is a soldiers' bonus bill. The Republicans dare not go before the country with all these matters still in the air and there is little prospect of getting through with them. While this state of affairs exists active opponents are going after them at home, trying to oust them from their jobs. Jobs are a prime consideration with these fellows but just now they are having the time of their lives trying to make a record that will entitle them to hold on.

Jim Ferguson, who was impeached and thrown out of the governor's office in Texas, is not the sort who dies willingly. He tried to organize a party of his own two years ago and make the race for president. Now he is back in the Democratic camp after the senatorial nomination. His wife has filed for the same office and if both go through to the primary it will be seen which Ferguson is the more popular.

The trouble about kicking a fellow who is down is the fact that he may not stay down. The kick may stimulate him to action and then the kicker may have reason to regret his hasty move. The fellow who appears to be down and out may refuse to remain in that category and may be doing some kicking himself sometime in the future.

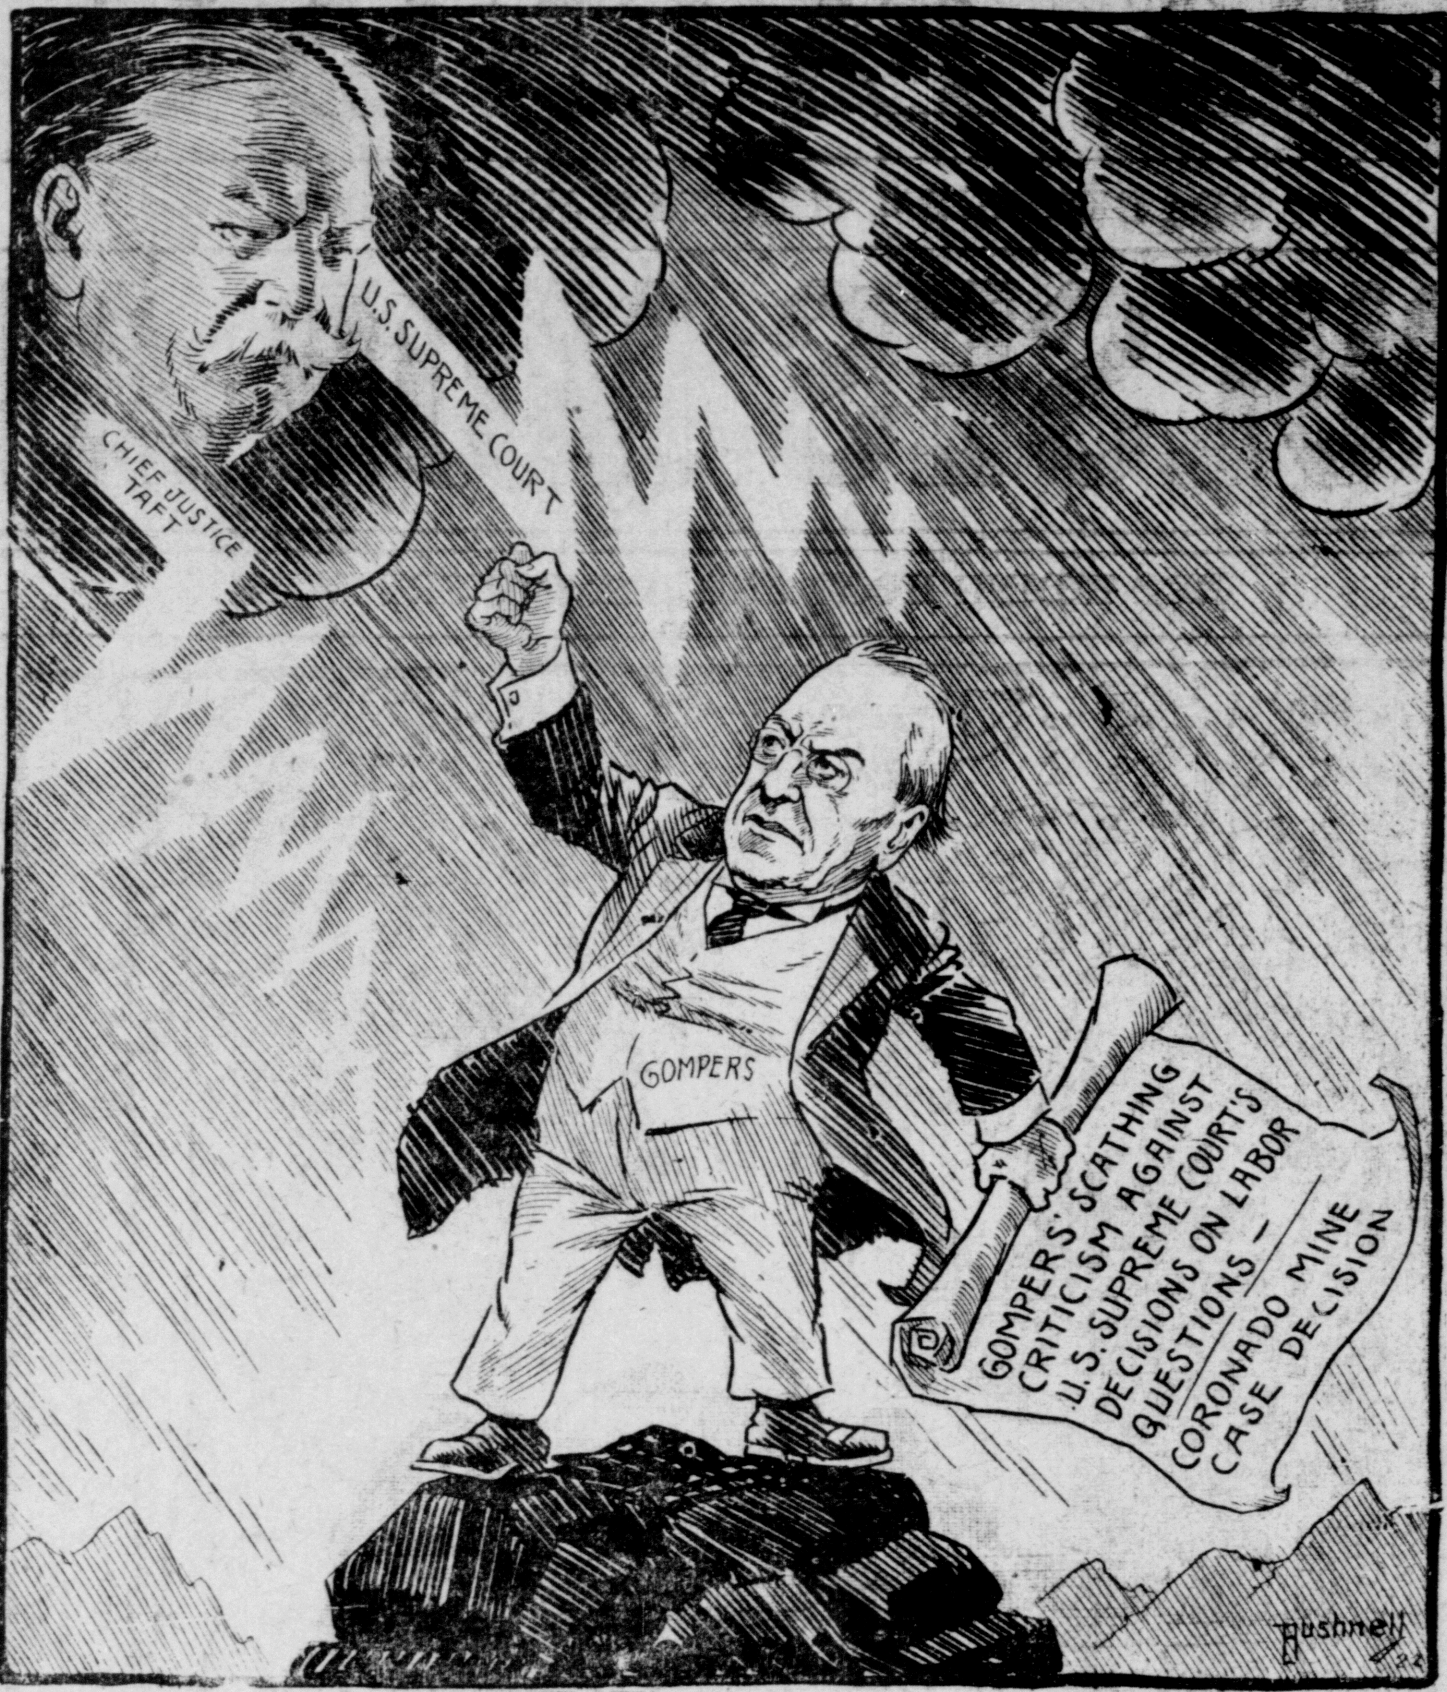

Many men fail because they are in a constant state of fear. They haven't the nerve to go squarely up against difficulties, but shrink from them and dodge all the responsibility possible. They are haunted by the fear that they are doomed to failure and in this state of mind invite the very disaster they seek to escape. The man who displays fear of trouble is simply inviting a bully to pick him for a victim.

Lenine, the Russian dictator, is reported to be a very sick man and his condition hopeless. As Lenine has died and been shot and dynamited about once a month for the past three or four years we shall just wait a few days before commenting on his life and career.

It is reported that 1,003 filings for places on the primary ticket for state offices have been made. When the county and precinct filings have been completed the list will be one of big proportions. This causes the Tulsa World to doubt if agriculture is really the first industry of Oklahoma.

Heredity is blamed for much that is in reality just pure cussedness on the part of the individual.

Using the Legion (Ardmoreite)

Using the American Legion for political purposes. That is what is being done at this time, and the Ardmoreite knows that such machination is distasteful to leaders of that organization who have fought hard to prevent it from being used to further the personal ambitions of any man or set of men.

Ross Lillard, candidate for lieutenant governor, is one of those who is so using it. We reprint in toto a letter he is broadcasting over the state:

"This is to advise that I am a candidate for lieutenant governor on the democratic ticket at the primary to be held in August of this year, and I am desirous of obtaining your support, realizing your influence among the ex-service men of your community.

I am the only ex-service man who is asking for the nomination on the democratic ticket for a state office. I served 23 months in the army during the recent war, 13 months being served in France.

"I was the first state commander of the American Legion, and, in company with five others, organized the legion in Oklahoma City, in April, 1919.

I was a member of the last state senate and in conjunction with other patriotic senators, we passed the hospital bills and all matters pertaining to the ex-service men, with only two dissenting votes against these measures.

"I would appreciate it very much if you could conscientiously support me and if you would pass the word around among the ex-service men that I am a candidate. The office does not pay enough to spend very much on a campaign to obtain it, and as I am unable to make any great expenditures, shall have to depend, to a large extent, upon my buddies throughout the state for nomination.

"With kindest regards, I am, Sincerely yours, ROSS N. LILLARD."

That very kind of thing hampered the U. C. V.'s and the G. A. R.'s in days gone by. It crippled their effectiveness. The legion has fought hard to keep its skirts clear of such intrigue.

Ross Lillard is all right, so far as we know. He may deserve the support of every legion man, but he has destroyed his influence with this paper and possibly with numbers of legion men by deliberately using his past affiliation with the legion as a means of getting votes.

The fact that he served his country deserves consideration, but that should be merely looked upon as one asset. The fact that he would use the legion in his candidacy to such an extent should work against him. And that goes, so far as we are concerned, with every other man of legion affiliation who does likewise.

Hurrah for the Girl! (Fort Worth Record)

A strange story comes out of Chicago and New England, a very strange story for this day and time in this enlightened country. A young Turk entered as a student in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, became attached to a young girl librarian there, and suggested to her that she accompany him to Turkey and enter his harem there. Yet he did not mention marriage. She repulsed him and he continued his attentions so that she finally left Boston and went to Chicago to get far from him, especially since he had threatened her with death if she refused to go with him. He pursued her to Chicago and then she called in the police. He is now in jail, with deportation threatened.

Treatment of Christians in Turkey by the Turks and the attitude of that nation toward America during the world war has given Americans no reason to wish their daughters allied with Turks, even by marriage. But when any of them come to this country and seek to force their attentions and their moral standards on any American girl, threatening death for non-compliance, it is time for swift action by the authorities.

Authorities at the institute of technology speak of the girl in the highest terms. She is a college graduate of fine, upright character, has a high degree of mentality, is a specialist in her work and unusually attractive. She did the right thing in calling the police and turning the matter over to them. Any alien seeking an education in this country, or here for any other purpose, must comfort himself according to the standards and laws of this country, and if he fails to do so he should be made to know there is no place for him over here.

OKMULGEE.—Mrs. Noreen Hughes home demonstration agent and teacher of domestic science, has taken up her duties of demonstration agent here, succeeding Mrs. Verna Shelton, recently resigned. Mrs. Hughes expects to enter homes of the county and offer instructions on basic principles of home management.

About 65 boys are playing baseball each week under supervision of the scout council.

Troops 4 and 7 shared the lodge together Tuesday night. Sixteen scouts were in the party. Lawrence Weaver won the "push-up-from-the-floor" contest, doing it fifty times. Guy Sadler was second and R. Wayne Kidd third. Wrestling matches, star study, boxing and swimming were features of the amusement.

Troop 9, under Harry Hamilton, spent Saturday night at the lodge. Something was said about tying Stanley Dean's mouth up with a towel if he didn't quit disturbing the sleep of the other scouts by snoring.

Valter Turner, Raymond Duke and Dennis Conley took care of Twelfth street park this week.

Gus Everett took several boys of Troop 10 to the lake Wednesday evening. Ralph Holcomb made the boys thrash the bushes for snakes before he would swim a certain distance.

Relay races, deep diving, speed swimming, potato races, undressing races, long distance diving and water polo games for all scouts will be a feature of the water celebration and contest at Glenwood pool Wednesday, June 21. Swims will be free to the scouts. Races and stunts will start about 6 o'clock in the evening. Each troop will be allowed representation in each event. A, B and C classes will be entered. A class boys are those weighing over 125 pounds, B class, 85 to 124 pounds, and C class for all under 85 pounds.

Three Materials Combine In Smart Silhouette

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

OLD-BLUE silk eponge with white Canton crepe and gayly-colored cretonne are different enough in combination to be interesting, yet are brought into such perfect harmony in this smart model as to be wholly pleasing.

The cretonne sleeve evidenced here is one of the attractive new fashion notes. The addition of a heavier fabric to the sleeve in flare effect gives both weight and grace and at the same time adds a distinctive note to the dress. The dress is finished as a slip-over. The panel extends above the waist line in the back as in the front, thus emphasizing the one-piece dress effect.

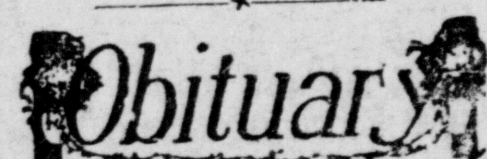

The shawl collar at the neck is merely a bias fold of material rightly shaped to a becoming width and length.

Although unusual and striking, this model is easy of development because of its simplicity.

LUDIE IS GIVEN FREEDOM AT O. C. AT END OF TRIAL

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 15.—Ludie Kinney, who recently married Opal Rexroat, wealthy Carter county Indian girl, was given his liberty today by the criminal court of appeals at the conclusion of a hearing on his application for a writ of habeas corpus. Kinney was arrested recently in Muskogee and held for extradition to Kansas on a charge of child desertion. He was freed by the criminal court on $1,000 bond when his application for a writ was filed more than a week ago.

The court today ordered that he be released from bond and his liberty not interfered with further on the child desertion charge. It was brought out at the hearing that Kinney is facing a charge of bigamy at Duncan, and the court indicated this was the reason for keeping him in Oklahoma. The bigamy charge grew out of his marriage in January to Miss Rexroat. It was alleged that he married before his divorce from Mrs. Veda Kinney in Kansas had become absolute.

NATIONAL ESSAY CONTEST ON SERVICE SPONSORED

A national essay contest with $1,500 prizes in scholarships is being sponsored by The American Legion. The contest which opened June 2 and closes at midnight August 1, is intended to encourage higher education and patriotic research among school children of the country.

The subject to be written on is: "How the American Legion Can Best Serve the Nation." The contest is open to all girls and boys between the ages of 12 to 18 years inclusive. Only one essay of not more than 500 words may be presented by each entrant.

County superintendents of schools are asked to name three judges to select the best essay in each county, to be sent in for prizes of selecting three state winners, which will be entered for national prizes. Medals will be awarded the first and second best essay writer in Oklahoma. The three national prizes will be known as American Legion scholarship awards, consisting of a first prize of $750, second $500 and a third of $250, derived from a fund donated personally by National Commander Hanford MacNider.

Full particulars have been furnished all posts of the American Legion by state headquarters and thru the American Legion Weekly issues of June 2 and 9, where rules of the contest may be found. Essays must be submitted through posts of the Legion.

Clayton B. West post No. 195 of Commerce, is "laying up residence" for a post home, according to Commander Earl A. Stapp. The post recently received over $300 to apply on the home as its share of a week's entertainment held under its auspices.

As a mark of their respect for the patriotic organization, the businessmen of Woodward and of Selma bought and presented the American Legion a post standard and colors.

In re-naming the boats, the Shipping Board undertook to re-christen the Leviathan, greatest American troop-ship, after President Harding, who directed, however, that the giant liner retain the name she had during doughboy days.

When Carrie Welch post No. 27 of Sallisaw, learned the city commissioners were planning the erection of a new modern brick City Hall, they brought about an agreement for a combined City Hall and American Legion Memorial Building. The building was recently completed, and the post has almost completed payment of their share, according to Ray O. Weems, who headed the building committee of the post.

The first official act of the first National President of the American Legion Auxiliary, it is reported, was to sign the charter of the Selman, Oklahoma, unit, which was done immediately after her election at the Kansas City convention.

Posts in every part of the state are preparing for the state convention at Bartlesville, September 11-12. Several have already completed plans for sending a large delegation to the National Convention at New Orleans October 16-20. The National Convention will last five days, this year.

In order that the homes of many victims in the flood area of Louisiana may be saved from the sheriff's sale, the American Legion has petitioned Governor Parker to recommend that the time for the payment of taxes by those who were compelled to vacate their homes be extended.

William Sprague post No. 273 has been organized at Mounds, Okla., with E. E. Weller as commander and J. W. Evans as adjutant. The Chamber of Commerce there requested that a charter be granted and agreed to boost the post in every way they could.

The American Legion of Washington is endeavoring to locate Louis, or Antoine, Layman, whose father has died in Hoquiam, Wash., leaving his son an estate. Layman, world war veteran, was last heard of in Milwaukee, Wis.

When John Daniels post No. 2 of Collinsville, celebrated with a home talent on May 27 the founding of the post two years ago. It "had everything and a little bit more," according to P. U. Cooksey, chairman of carnival committee. Athletic and other contests, band concerts, a street dance, vaudeville, a War Relics display, and even a Bar Americaine and a chicken fight were features on the carnival program.

PONCA CITY: Cities and towns along the White River trail, extending from Springfield, Mo., through Arkansas to Tulsa, Pawhuska and Ponca City, are raising a fund of $1,000 to attract tourists over this route. This plan was authorized at a recent convention at Pawhuska. The 1923 convention will be held here, and by that time it is expected the trail will be extended to a western connection with the Albert Pike highway to Colorado.

FREDERICK: Thirty-eight applicants were initiated through the second and third degrees of the Knights or Py, as here recently. First degree ceremonies were given by the Grandfield lodge, the second by Albus, and the third by the lodge of Wichita Falls, Texas.

HIGH SCHOOLS TO AID WOUNDED VET

Brawley, Cal., Finds Plan To Enable Service Men To Buy Homes.

(By the Associated Press)
BRAWLEY, Calif., June 14.—The rehabilitation of disabled ex-service men under a trained system worked out by the authorities of the Brawley High school, and known as the "Brawley plan," is a success according to a report made by a special committee appointed by government officials to make an investigation of the work being done here.

The committee found a group of fifty-seven contented and happy ex-service men, although all of them were more or less disabled during the recent war. A majority of them are married, and each has a ranch of his own, ranging in size from five to forty acres. They are looking forward to the day when the indebtedness will be paid off and deeds obtained to their property.

While high schools in many parts of the country have entered into contracts with the government for the rehabilitation of disabled ex-service men, the "Brawley plan" is attracting special notice. Under it a trainee suffering from slight disability is given the opportunity of purchasing land on long time payments with interest as low as three percent. He selects his own tract, being given such assistance as desired, and for his protection the terms of payment and interest rate are passed upon by a committee of local business men.

The Brawley high school employs four instructors, each a specialist in some particular branch of agriculture. These instructors devote all of their time to the trainees in actual work on their ranches, teaching them the latest methods of farming. The government allows each trainee $100 a year for the purchase of farm implements. In several instances these funds have been combined by trainees so that complete sets of farming equipment are available to those who have contributed towards their purchase.

All of the trainees now working under the Brawley plan draw regular monthly allotments from the government. These are handled through a local bank, which assists every trainee to keep his expenses within a scientifically prepared budget.

Referring to the financial success of the Brawley plan from the standpoint of the trainees, the committee cited the experience of one ex-service man who was among the first to avail himself of the opportunities offered by the plan. With the assistance of the school experts this trainee planted his acreage to lettuce. The returns from the crop this year were sufficient to pay off all indebtedness, and the newly-made farmer is planning the erection of a $5,000 home.

EX-JUDGE, CONVICT, RUBS ELBOWS WITH CROOKS HE SENT TO PRISON

William H. McGannon.

(By Central Press)
COLUMBUS, O., June 5.—The heavy steel doors of Ohio penitentiary swung open.

A heavy-set man, grayed with the weight of trouble, but with figure erect, faltered as he stepped inside. The doors closed. The bolt caught. William H. McGannon, former chief justice of the municipal court of Cleveland, now a convicted perjurer, was starting an indeterminate term of one to ten years.

Two short years ago Chief Justice McGannon was looked upon as something of a genius. His reorganization of the Cleveland municipal court system won nationwide praise.

Then one May night in 1920 a man was shot to death. McGannon's car was found abandoned on the scene. Witnesses to the shooting said they saw a tall man, answering McGannon's description, escape through a side street.

Detectives visited the judge at his home two hours later. He declared he had left the machine, two blocks from the scene of the shooting, his two companions remaining in the machine.

Police told him that one of them had been killed. The other was missing. He denied knowledge of the shooting.

The missing man, John W. Joyce, was apprehended, tried and acquitted.

Then a woman entered the case. A former sweetheart whom the judge had spurned.

She told of trailing the judge on the fatal night and seeing him at the scene of the crime.

McGannon was indicted. The jury disagreed. He was retried. At the second trial the woman refused to testify against McGannon.

He was acquitted.

Then it was discovered that McGannon had influenced her not to testify, at a midnight meeting just before she went on the stand. He was found guilty of obstructing justice. Served twenty days in jail.

Then the perjury trial. The woman was chief witness. She and others testified he was at the scene of the shooting. He had testified that he left the machine two blocks away previous to the shooting. The verdict was guilty.

And so William H. McGannon shed his judicial robes for those of the convict.

And behind the gray walls of the prison the former judge is now a comrade of crooks, thugs and gunmen, many of whom he himself sent to the penitentiary.

"Gold! Gold!"

Back in the '40's it took months for the thrilling news of California's gold strike to cross the continent. Today, a few hours after so important a discovery, the entire story would be known to newspaper readers throughout the country.

In the early days, news spread by word of mouth. Today, the telegraph and telephone speed the message into the newspaper office, it is rushed into type, the paper is printed and shortly the news becomes public property.

There are two kinds of news in the paper. One consists of the affairs of other people; their sayings, doings and what they're going to do; things that have happened, may happen and did happen.

The other kind of news is about your affairs. That's the part you'll find in the advertisements. There's a lot of valuable news there about things you want or will want; things that have to do with your own personal comfort, convenience and every-day efficiency.

Every advertisement carries a personal message to some one. Many advertisements carry messages of vital interest or value to you.

That's why you can't afford to miss the advertisements.

Read them. The advertisements are decidedly valuable to you.

COULD NOT TURN IN BED

Operation Avoided by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Veg- etable Compound

Dayton, Ohio.—"I had such pains that I had to be turned in bed every time I wished to move. They said an operation was necessary. My mother would keep saying: 'Why don't you take Pinkham's, Henrietta?' and I'd say, 'Oh, mamma, it won't help me, I've tried too much.' One day she said, 'Let me get you one bottle of each kind. You won't be out very much if it don't help you.' I don't know if you will believe me or not, but I only took two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine when I began to get relief and I am regular ever since without a pain or a headache.

When I lie down I can get up without help and without pain. I can't begin to tell you how I feel and look. I have begun to gain in weight and look more like I ought to. I think every day of ways I have been helped. Any one who does not believe me can write to me and I will tell them what shape I was in. I am ready to do anything I can to help your medicine."—Mrs. HENRIETTA MILLER, 137 Sprague St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you have any doubt, write to Mrs. Miller and get her story direct.

Notice To All Automobile Owners

There are SIX vital points in operating a gas motor:

1. Lubrication is the life of a motor.
2. Change the oil in crank case every 800 miles at least.
3. Never change the oil in crank case without washing case.
- (Reason): The dirt, grime and steel settles to the bottom and is left to circulate through the new oil and acts as sand paper on the bearing. Do not flush case with kerosene because of the danger of explosion and because the kerosene left in the case will cut the body and impair the lubricating value of the fresh oil.
4. Use an oil that has stood the government test.
5. See what you are paying for and guard against paying a high price for a cheap grade of black oil.
6. Stop at the A-1 Filling Station on West Main near Frisco station. I WASH the crank case CLEAN of all grime and ground up steel FREE. We handle the best of Oil and Gas—Texaco products. I show you the oil before you buy.

FLIER EXPLAINS CITIZENS' DRILL

Post Field Aviator Is Here
Today and Outlines Government Plan.

Lieutenant Carroll of Post Field aviation station, near Lawton, arrived by airplane from Fort Sill this morning and at 11 o'clock met with a group of representatives of local organizations of the city and explained purposes of the Citizen's Military Training camp, which will be held at Fort Sill this summer, beginning July 26 and lasting four weeks.

Lieutenant Carroll stated that the camp would be composed of three courses, Red, White and Blue. Men from the age of 17 to 25 years, who have had little or no military experience will be put in the red course, he said. White course will include those from the ages of 18 to 26, who have had some military training. Blue course, the highest course offered, will include experienced men in military work from the ages of 19 to 35.

Physical requirements for admittance to the camp are not strict, Lieutenant Carroll explained. For those who have no affiliations with the military of the nation, no pay will be given, except the allowance for car fare from Ada to Fort Sill, for food on the road and for all expenses at camp. Toilet articles, socks, underwear, towels and incidentals will be furnished by the individual. The government will provide other equipment.

Keep Nation Prepared.

The prime purpose of the camp, it was explained, is to keep citizens of the nation with a working knowledge of military life. This acts as a supplant to the national defense. Citizens who sign up for the summer camp will be ordered out July 26. All connections whatsoever with the government will be severed the day the person is given his discharge at Fort Sill at the conclusion of the four week's work.

A provision has been made that pay for men now in national guard or reserve corps service would be available provided funds were sufficient. Thus national guardsmen here who want to take the citizens camp work in addition to the regular guard camp, will stand a good chance of receiving regular pay at the citizen's camp.

Capt. Robert S. Kerr has charge of enlistment of men here and any man between the ages stated may obtain further information by applying to him. Lieutenant Carroll left at noon today and will continue his tour in this part of the state in the interest of the citizen's military camp.

30 NATIONS MEET AT THE HAGUE

question," the note said also, "would appear to be the restoration of productivity in Russia, the essential conditions of which are still to be secured and must in the nature of things be provided within Russia herself."

Secretary Hoover, speaking in Washington May 15 on the American refusal to attend The Hague gathering, said the American government still maintained there could be no recognition of Soviet Russia unless the government of Moscow conformed to the principles of safety of life, recognition of firm guarantees of private property, the sanctity of a contract and the rights of free labor. Until these things were established and carried out, Mr. Hoover said he held with Secretary of State Hughes that there could be no productivity in Soviet Russia.

France Makes Demands.

France, early in June, in a memorandum to the powers concerned, demanded that the Soviet Russian government withdraw its memorandum presented at the Genoa conference May 11 as a condition for French participation at The Hague. This note of May 11, presented to the powers at Genoa, declared the Soviets' repudiation of Russia's national debts and international obligations and refused to establish the bases of security regarded as fundamentally necessary for the restoration of productivity in Russia; it also claimed heavy financial damages for the participation of the Allies in military operations against the Soviet regime.

The French government set forth certain arguments strikingly similar to those which earlier had come out of Washington. Premier Poincare declared the reconstruction of Russia depended upon the revival of agricultural production and this, he said, could not be obtained without a change in regime that would assure the peasants the proceeds of their labor. M. Poincare referred specifically to the attitude of the Soviet government with respect to its refusal to restore the property of foreigners; to indemnify owners for damages sustained, or recognize the Russian debt. This debt, he said, should be treated on the same basis as the debts of the Allies when a settlement was reached, provided Russia had agreed to the same conditions as the Allies, but there was no reason to accord Russia exceptional treatment in reducing her war debt, as had been suggested at Genoa.

Representatives of all the powers present at Genoa, with the exception of Russia and Germany, have been invited to The Hague.

Germany was excluded on account of the secret signing of the Rapallo treaty April 17 last with Russia at a time when the Genoa conference was in session.

LAW OF IRELAND TO BE COMPLETE

Coalition cabinet, drawn from the pro-treaty faction under Michael Collins, and the anti-treaty forces under Eamonn de Valera. An agreement reached in May by Collins and deValera provided, among other things, for a cabinet of eleven members including the president and the minister of Defense. The nine other members will be selected five from the majority party and four from the minority party, each party to choose its members.

Fight Is Checked.

The factional agreement of May brought about a halt in the aggressive fight being waged by the deValera faction against the Provisional government. At the same time it was received with something like consternation in British governmental circles. It was believed in England that it struck at the basis of the treaty in preventing a free expression of Southern Irish opinion on the pact and that it might represent also the yielding of the Collins faction to the militant anti-treaty party, which has been insistent that the fight for a republic be kept up.

In this situation the British authorities asked the leading representatives of the Provisional government to come to London for a conference, and lengthy conversations between cabinet members of the Irish representatives took place there during the week of May 28. As a result Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill, in a speech in the British House of Commons on June 1, announced what was virtually the decision of the British government to let the elections proceed as arranged by the two factions in Ireland. This was coupled, however, with the warning that if any of the members of the coalition government for Ireland, representing both factions, constituted upon the basis of the new elections, should fail to subscribe to the declaration of adherence to the treaty, the British government would consider that this constituted a violation of the treaty. The British government would feel free in that case, he said, to resume full liberty of action as to reclaiming the powers ceded to the Irish authorities under the treaty. It was broadly hinted by Mr. Churchill indeed, that this might mean a military reoccupation of Southern Ireland by the British.

Militant Move Expected.

Mr. Churchill said also it has been explained by the Irish representatives that they considered it virtually impossible to hold free elections at the present time. They expected militant opposition from the opponents of the treaty, and this would prevent voters from registering their free choice.

The list of candidates for election issued in Dublin, leaves the present composition of the Dail Eireann only slightly altered.

There are 128 seats in the counties, boroughs and universities of Free State constituencies, for which 124 candidates appear in the panel. The other four, forming the constituency of Dublin University are left uncontested by the coalition on the presumption that they will be returned unopposed.

Although 125 seats are represented in the panel, only 124 candidates will be nominated, because Commandant General Dan Breen was selected for both sides in the division formed by East Tipperary and Waterford County and City.

Treaty Supporters Lead.

The panel gives 66 seats for proponents of the treaty and 59 for Republicans.

In County Monaghan, Dr. McCarbille was selected by the Republican in place of Sean McEntee, who is a strong opponent of the treaty. P. O'Kelly was nominated in Dublin county for the seat made vacant through the recent death of Frank Lawless.

Independents probably will contest 20 constituencies. The Irish Farmers Union has between 20 and 30 candidates ready; the Labor nominees number 20, and half a dozen candidates will run in the cities of Dublin, Cork and Limerick on behalf of business interests.

The Republican list for Kildare and Wicklow contains the names of Robert C. Barton, Erskine Childers, Art O'Connor and Dan Buckley, the only pro-treaty candidates in that constituency being C. M. Byrne.

Several Ratepayers' Associations candidates will appear unattached, while the independent nominees include the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Alderman Alfred Byrne, for the city of Dublin and E. Mac Lysacht for County Clare.

BALLOT ON RAIL STRIKE SPREADS

New Anticipated Slash in Wages Puts More Men
Talking Walkout.

(By the Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, June 15.—Officials of the railroad unions would not intervene to stop the strike of 1,225,000 shop crafts and maintenance of way workers, E. M. Jewell declared today in addressing the American Federation of Labor convention here. Mr. Jewell is president of the railway employees department of the federation.

"The railroad workers are ready for the test," said Mr. Jewell "and if they decide to strike, their decision would be complied with by their leaders."

CHICAGO, June 15.—While three sets of strike ballots rolled into the Chicago headquarters of six railroad shopcrafts unions, other railroad labor organizations were preparing today to call for a strike vote, following another anticipated wage reduction expected from the railroad labor board tomorrow.

The new decision, which is expected to lop from $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 from the payroll of 325,000 clerks, signal men and stationery firemen and oilers, will complete a series of three wage reductions ordered, all effective June 1.

At a conference in Cincinnati last week, 11 unions decided on a strike vote in protest against the July 1 wage cut. One union, the telegraphers, will not be affected and is not expected to ballot. The shopmen subsequently added two more questions to their ballots, piling up a triple barreled vote.

Although tomorrow's decision will cover train dispatchers and other supervision officials, no reduction is expected for that class of workers and the maximum cut for any class is now estimated at not more than five cents an hour.

KIDNAPPERS ARE NABBED IN DARK

Abductors of Woman at Tulsa Whisked Away
In Car at Night.

TULSA, June 15.—J. T. Kondon and Jack Wolfe, the two self styled traveling men who were held Tuesday night by police for investigation into the alleged kidnapping of Mrs. Maxine Curtis, pretty 20-year-old wife of S. L. Curtis, oil worker of Avant were themselves kidnapped last night and up to 11 o'clock this morning no trace of them had been disclosed by the authorities.

The police released the two at 11 o'clock last night. Curtis, the husband of the woman who accused them of forcing her at the point of a revolver to accompany them from the train just arrived from Enid, to a hotel Tuesday evening, had not appeared at that time to swear to a complaint against the pair.

According to reports of passersby on the street last night, the two men had not walked a half a block from the police station toward Main street on Second when they were forced into automobiles, which bore evidence of having travelled miles over a dirty road, it was said.

ATTENTION THIS MAY MEAN YOU! If you are a member of the Christian Church congregation you are expected to be on the parsonage lawn this evening at 8 o'clock and do your share in entertaining young folk and faculty of the college.

Are there any lines between your eyes? If so, ask yourself the question, "Why?"

Many people have a constant scowl caused solely by eye strain. This is often so disfiguring that it doesn't matter how attractive the person otherwise appears—the scowl spoils it all.

In most cases scowls can be "smoothed" out by relieving the eye-strain.

If you have any symptoms of eye strain you should let us examine your eyes at once.

Don't wait until ugly lines appear between the eyes.

Make Remarkable Offer To Any Person in Ada Who Is Weak, Sick, Nervous or Run-Down

It Is Now Possible for You to Come to This Store, Buy a Regular $1.10 Package of Nuxated Iron, Use It for Two Weeks, and if at the End of That Time You Have Not Received All, and Even Greater Benefits Than You Expect, Simply Bring the Wrapper Back to Gwin & Mays and We Will Cheerfully Hand You Back Your Money.

Ada people may well ask how we can afford to make this remarkable "Satisfaction or Money Back" offer. Medical examinations by physicians all over the country show that an amazing number of people lack 100% iron in their blood. At a recent conference, Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out Door Department), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, said, "Without iron, the blood becomes weak, thin, pale and watery. In many people this so seriously weakens their vital organs as to lead them to believe that they have heart or stomach trouble, kidney disease, nerve force exhaustion or some other serious ailment. I have had people come to me thinking they had heart trouble, because they often had pains and palpitation of the heart, sudden dizziness, faintness or spots before the eyes. In a great many of these cases, the moment iron was supplied, all of these symptoms disappeared." We make this offer because Genuine Nuxated Iron contains true organic iron like the iron in your blood. So many people are deficient in iron who would surely be benefited by this remarkable remedy, that we recommend that you come right to Gwin & Mays Drug Co. and get your bottle of Nuxated Iron. Use it for two weeks, and note the improvement in your own case in strength, energy and endurance. If you are not more than surprised at the results, just bring back the wrapper and we will promptly refund your money without question.
